SCOTLAND GETS ITS AUDIO & AV SHOW BACK

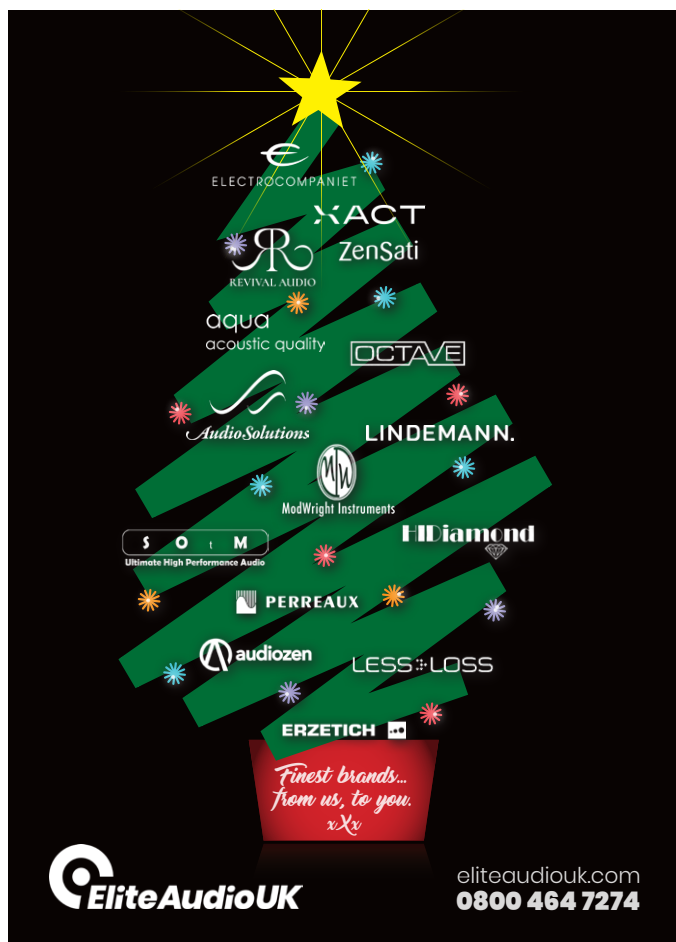

Following a 17 year break the Edinburgh HI-AV Show has now returned

Last hosted at the Marriott Dalmahoy in 2007 its new location will be at the Hilton Double Tree at Edinburgh Airport on the 9/10 November. The UK has ongoing and annual shows both in the Midlands and South and with the ever advancing Audio/AV technology it is well overdue for Scotland to have its own show. We set our target for '24 at a minimum of 15 individual demonstration Suites, and have achieved nearly 20 so we are very happy about that but unusually and most rewardingly a large percentage of the Exhibitors are indigenous to Scotland including many difficult to find services and eclectic brands. Vinyl will also form essential place as well , as it continues to be a major attraction along with Expert Record Cleaning, Turntables, Styli etc.

By relocating to the Airport we hope we've made it easier for you our valued visitor to attend, with free parking via the adjacent Park & Ride or £5 all day on site: one of the biggest challenges facing any Organiser of this type consumer show is finding a suitable Venue and to that end we are very grateful to the reception and help we've had from the 'Hilton'. Music is and will continue to be an essential pleasure for mankind and Edinburgh's connections to Music ensure a real synergy, and we would like to think this show can grow and become an annual event, but as always that is down to Exhibitor expectations and of course you the visitor.

After 27 years and many hundreds of shows around the world I'm now stepping back and letting my son take hold of the baton – it has been a great pleasure, many thanks.

Roy Bird – Chester Group

VINYL INDULGENCE
COMES TO SCOTLAND

It's ironic that it was 17 years ago when I joined the family concern as an aspirational show organiser, and the same year as the last show the Chester Group organised in Edinburgh.

The show only ceased because it ran out of space and no ongoing and suitable venue could be found, although in the meantime one of our Exhibitors thought to continue where we had left off, but decided running a shop was preferred to the challenges of show organising!!

After that we pioneered new shows for Australia, New York, Canada etc. and extended our shows in the UK, and it's been an amazingly exciting time where I've had the pleasure of visiting some amazing places and worked with some great people.

As I knew my father was intending to step back this year, I wanted to re-establish both our London Shows and Scotland, so the wheel's turn as they say.

I have to say it's been a delight dealing with all the Exhibitors supportive of the shows return, and of course it will be up to them if they want it to continue and grow, but most of all you the visitor, because without your support as well, the package would simply not be complete.

A special thanks to Roy, my father for putting up with me for so long.

It's been a pleasure.

Thanks – Justin Bird
